

Beautyandthedirt.com
July 25th 2006
Circulation: 500,000

BEAUTY & THE DIRT

Welcome to Mimi's world, you might never want to leave...

Daily Dirt!

» Paul's Patisserie Opens in City

If you haven't tasted the creations from PAUL, the French bakery and patisserie, now is the time. The quintessential French family bakery opened a beautiful new shop and café at St. Paul's Cathedral in the heart of London. You can enjoy all the delicious breads, viennoiserie, tarts, macaroons, sandwiches, and salads in a stunning environment, overlooking the immaculate cathedral and London city skyline. This new shop distinguishes itself from the others with its outdoor terrace to seat 50. Attracting office workers, tourists, and day-trippers alike, come soak up the London buzz whilst devouring a taste of the French Art de Vivre.

*PAUL at St. Paul's Cathedral,
Paternoster Lodge,
Paternoster Square,
London, EC4M 7DX,
T: 020 7329 4705.*